ASSAILANT OF WOMAN IS HELD BY GRAND JURY

Only a few hours before the mass meeting at the Bijou theater last Sunday evening, when leading citizens of this city discussed the sociological problem under the topic "Does Honolulu Care?" another crime of rape is alleged to have been committed. The victim is said to be a Hawaiian woman of middle age, the offender a young Hawaiian released only about a month ago from Oahu prison, where he had been incarcerated eighteen months after conviction on the charge of burglary, committed on Maui.

This much is shown in the partial report of the Territorial grand jury, which was placed on secret file late yesterday afternoon and revealed this morning after the accused had been apprehended. Charles Kaauwila is the name of the man accused of the latest crime against womanhood in Honolulu, and the information was given by his alleged victim.

According to her story, the man assaulted her early Sunday morning while her husband lay in the same room in a drunken stupor, following a "dago red" jag the night before.

Her cries, finally driving the intruder away, also aroused her foster son, who had been sleeping in a room nearby, and he gave chase and captured Kaauwila.

Four other true bills are returned by the grand jury. They charge Watsi Taniya with assault and battery; John La Bona and Joseph Castro with assault with a weapon, and Kim Chong with larceny in the first degree.

Regular meeting of the members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee will be held at the rooms of the Merchants' Association, on Friday, Dec. 6, 1912, at 3:30 o'clock p. m.

Occasionally the sense of humor can be exchanged for dollars.

Old Question Up Again In Monoa Valley

What's in a name. A good deal, if you happen to live up in Monoa, and the name is the name of a street.

Hence the special meeting of the Monoa Improvement Club called for tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Monoa Tennis Club grounds.

As nearly as can be gathered from the accounts of enthusiastic citizens living in the valley, the imbrolio, as the war correspondents call it, came about when some Monoa residents objected to the renaming of Punahou street and Monoa road. The improvement club some weeks ago secured permission to rename the streets according to wishes of residents of the section, and the name of the upper part of Punahou street was changed so that the full length of this thoroughfare from King street up is now Punahou. Upper and Lower Monoa roads were also changed to Monoa avenue.

The signs, bright and new and conspicuous, were put up before the opposition began to sit up and take notice. Now the said opposition has crystallized into a move to do some more changing, and the special meeting is called tonight to talk the matter over in a neighborly fashion. Club members are asked to leave their guns at home.

The dynamiting trial at Indianapolis brought out the fact that the labor leaders had made plans to eventually dynamite the Panama Canal locks.

Detective Burns says that he will soon go upon the stand at Indianapolis and tell some sensational incidents about the union labor dynamiters that have never been made public.

A hot fight will be made by Reno merchants and divorce practitioners against the proposed change in the residence requirement for divorce.

SUPERVISOR LOW HAS SURPRISE UP SLEEVE

Supervisor Eben Low still has an ace to play in his little game with Supervisor Harry Murray. It was learned this morning.

Supervisor Murray indulged in sundry remarks last Monday night, when, at the board meeting, he produced figures as to the unexpended balance in the municipal treasury, declaring with considerable emphasis that Supervisor Low, chairman of the ways and means committee, had been talking through his hat in recent remarks to the effect that the city is about "broke" for his month.

Murray had collected his figures from the auditor's department, and it grieved Supervisor Low exceedingly to learn that while he, too, had collected figures from the auditor's office, his figures did not at all agree with those set forth by Mr. Murray.

With battle in his eye, therefore, the supervisor from Monoa went out on the trail of the real facts about the city treasury. He went through the auditor's office with a noise like a whirlwind, tore through the city clerk's department, invaded the sacred and dusty precincts of the tax office, and ended a long day's work with certain results over which he was able to indulge a machiavellian smile of satisfaction this morning.

Briefly speaking, the supervisor from the third promises that when he springs his figures on the board, he will produce a sensation twice as large as Murray's. Incidentally, he declares that there has been some loose work in the auditor's office.

"Why, do you know, I found that through carelessness in copying resolutions, they had slipped up on items amounting to over a thousand dollars," he said this morning. "The treasury is over a thousand dollars to the good by the figures I hunted out yesterday. I secured them by comparing resolutions passed by the board with those copied in the auditor's office."

Mr. Low said this morning that there's no glory in public office here any way. "This supervisory scheme of governing the city is a farce—a mere farce. No wonder they talk about a commission government," he commented.

HOTELS YIELD MUCH PLUNDER

Japanese hotels of Honolulu furnished much plunder in the raids made upon them during the stillly watches of the night by Choy Chang Hong, a Korean, who Deputy Chief of Detectives Kellett and his men caught in the act of going through one of the lower Beretania avenue hostels.

At detective headquarters, there reposes a collection of suit cases, baskets and bundles, each containing a large assortment of clothing, jewelry and personal effects, which were discovered at a hiding place, maintained by the Korean.

For weeks, complaints have been coming into the police department regarding a systematic campaign of petty thievery at the Oriental hotels and lodging houses.

Spies were set to watch the premises.

Deputy Kellett was again notified that a quantity of baggage including clothing had just disappeared from a River street house. Kellett and several officers started in hot pursuit and ran right into the Korean, who was struggling with three large suit cases filled with all sorts of plunder.

Questions launched at the man failed to elicit a satisfactory response. He was taken back to the hotel, there the contents of the cases were examined and many of the articles immediately identified.

The Korean when taken to the central station is said to have made a clean breast of the whole matter, and further declared that he was prepared to guide Kellett and his men to the scenes of past depredations.

A charge of larceny will be filed against the Korean.

CONSUL SAMMONS ON WAY BACK TO JAPAN

Thomas Sammons, United States Consul-General at Yokohama, Japan, will arrive in Honolulu on his way back to his post, after a stay in this country of four months, on the steamer Mongolia due here tomorrow. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Sammons.

Sammons came home on leave of absence, but during two months of his stay here he was commissioned by the State Department to visit all the commercial bodies in the principal cities of the country with a view to discussing means of increasing the trade between this country and Japan.

When Sammons returns to Yokohama he will enter upon his fourth year as Consul-General at that port. Prior to his appointment to Yokohama he was Consul-General at Seoul, Korea and before that had been stationed in Manchuria. He is considered one of the best informed consular officers in the Orient.

Among other matters which he will take up with the Japanese authorities upon his arrival at Yokohama will be the discussion of the subject of reducing the Japanese tariff on goods exported from the Pacific Coast, including flour, canned fruits and leather goods.

WOMEN BRAVE

Both the child who appears as prosecuting witness in the present case, and her companion on the visits to the Chinese store, were present this morning, as was also Dr. Sinclair, to whom they were taken for medical examination after the alleged crime was discovered.

Hee Park was indicted by the Territorial grand jury October 10, the specific date of his crime being named as September 25. He was arraigned October 14 and entered a plea of not guilty, the court then appointing Attorney S. F. Chillingworth to represent the defendant as counsel.

Jury Selected. The jury to sit in the case and to eventually pass verdict, after all the evidence and argument has been presented, was quickly selected, only one challenge being exercised in the first twelve called.

The little girl against whom the unspeakable crime is said to have been committed was placed on the witness stand early in the hearing. She does not speak or understand English readily, but through an interpreter she told, in her childish way the half-forgotten incidents of the affair. As it occurred about two and one-half months ago, many of the details apparently did not stand out well in her memory. The examination was a tedious and difficult one, both because of this fact and that the witness was overwhelmed by self-consciousness and fright. On some of the minor points, even after her memory had been refreshed by questions with broader suggestiveness than ordinarily are permitted in a court of law, she seemed to confuse the facts, and at times her answers appeared to conflict.

The jurors are Charles S. Hall, Frank Lester James, Josephus C. Axtell, William L. Lyle, Ben. F. Hollinger, Otto F. Heine, Fred J. Turner, John Coffee, William T. Schmidt, John F. Child, James E. Jaeger and Thomas McLean.

In the last two years Mrs. E. H. Harriman has received over 6,000 begging letters which in money requests totaled $267,000,000.
